

GIUSEPPE CINA', architect, PhD in Territorial Planning

Born in Palermo, 1950

Member of the Chamber of Architects of Palermo n°1066, 1979.

Since 1975 his professional activity is dedicated to Urban and territorial planning, as planner and as teacher.

Author of numerous architectural projects and town planning schemes, both general and sector-based.

From 1975, engaged in several educational and research activities connected with the islamic urban tradition.

1975-1978, Associate Professor and Associate Researcher in Urban planning, Ecole Polytechnique d'Architecture et d'Urbanisme, Algiers.

From 1985, Associate Member of National Planning Institute.

From 1989 to 1993, Member of the 'Parks and natural reserves' Board, Region of Palermo.

From 1989 to 1993, Chief architect, Archaeology Museum of Palermo, Sicily.

From 1990, Member of a special list of engineers and architects for the cooperation with the emergent countries, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy.

1993-1997, Representative of FAG, Unige, for EU program MedCampus/Reumadu: "Post graduate training for third world countries in Regional and urban development planning".

1995-2007, Coordinator of Socrates Office for Erasmus EU programs, FAG, Unige.

2001-2007, Representative of FdA, Unige, for bilateral scientific program with IRAQ (Baghdad University) and several foreign High Education Institutes.

From 2004, Associate Professor, FAG, Unige; at present; Politecnico of Turin, 2nd Faculty of Architecture.

Publications on Baghdad

From 1982, author or numerous researches, articles and books concerning various aspects of planning. Some of them are related to Baghdad current problems:

Cinà G., Baghdad and the risks of an unsuitable reconstruction, XV International Urban Design and Implementations Symposium, 'Urban Design in Change', Istanbul, 2005.

Cinà G., Iraq, la tutela con i bulldozer, Il giornale dell'architettura, n° 85, giugno 2010.

Cinà G., Baghdad et les risques d'une fausse reconstruction, 'Vies de villes', 2007, Vol. 7.

Cinà G., Bagdad y el riesgo de una reconstrucción inapropiada, 'POLIS', 2006, Vol. 9.

Cinà G., Baghdad. Quale ricostruzione per il dopoguerra?, 'Urbanistica PVS', 2003, Vol. 33/34.

Cinà G., Il programma Assurbanipal, 'Genuense Athaeneum', 2002, Vol. 51.

Main professional activity

- Plan and projects for general food markets, in Algiers and Annaba. Client: Société Nationale REGMA, Algeri, 1976/78.

- Plan for a Water Sport centre and arrangement of lake Arancio shore. Client: Consorzio Basso Belice-Carboi, Menfi, 1983.

- Reclamation plan of the East coast in Palermo. Client: SAILEM, 1983. (coll.)

- Development scheme of a 600 flats neighborhood in Oran, Algeria. Client: Tekne Planning Milano, Ministère de l'urbanisme et de l'habitat, Algiers, 1984. (coll.)

- Preservation plan of Sant'Agostino district. Client: Mayoralty of Palermo, 1983. (coll.)

- Feasibility Plan for a waste collection and reclaim system. Linosa isle. Lampedusa, 1986.

- Services plan for the old town centre of Palermo, 1988. (coll.)

- Regional Archaeological Museum of Palermo. Restoration works, 1988/1990. Client: Regional board for cultural goods.

- Preservation plan of Albergheria district, Palermo. Client: Mayoralty of Palermo, 1990-94.

- Master Plan for Quarrata, 2001

- Regulation for housing heritage preservation. Client: Portofino Natural Park, 2002.

- Regulation for agriculture. Client: Portofino Natural Park, 2002.

- Regulation for mobility system. Client: Portofino Natural Park, 2002.

- Landscape preservation and valorisation plan, Piana Crixia Natural Park, 2005.

- Redevelopment plan and landscape preservation for 'Batterie' area, Portofino Natural Park, 2006.

- Sempione – Gottardo area rehabilitation. International competition, Torino, 2010.